Voorhees, NJ – Animal Welfare Association (AWA) looks forward to its special community partnerships with the ASPCA, Subaru of America, and Miller Subaru that will drive pet adoptions in South Jersey during the holiday season.

The organization is proud to announce the “Share the Love Home Town Hero Campaign,” during which, for every car purchased, or new car leased, from Miller Subaru between 11/14/2020 and 1/2/2020, AWA can potentially receive $250 from Miller Subaru.

Not only that, Miller Subaru, located at 1592 NJ-38, Lumberton, NJ 08048, is doing a pet supplies drive at the dealership between December 1st through December 11th, with a goal to “Stuff the Subaru” on December 7th during the Subaru of America / ASPCA “Share the Love” Adoption Event.

The “Share the Love” Adoption Event, located at AWA’s Adoption Center, is sure to be a great day in the community, with the ambition of adopting out 30 pets to local residents, while waiving the fee for the lucky new pet owners. The fee-waived adoptions are made possible by the generous funding from ASPCA and Subaru of America.

Maya Richmond, AWA Executive Director, says, “AWA’s community partnerships are what drive our work forward. We’re indebted to ASPCA, Subaru of America, and Miller Subaru, for our “Share the Love” Campaign that will greatly accelerate our efforts against pet homelessness.”
