AWA Earns Coveted 4-Star Rating from Charity Navigator

August 6, 2018

Voorhees, NJ: Animal Welfare Association (AWA)'s sound fiscal management practices and commitment to accountability and transparency have earned it a 4-star rating from Charity Navigator, America's largest independent charity evaluator. This is the fifth consecutive time that AWA has received this status.

Since 2002, using objective, data-driven analysis, Charity Navigator has awarded only the most fiscally responsible organizations a 4-star rating. "This is our highest possible rating and indicates that your organization adheres to sector best practices and executes its mission in a financially efficient way," according to Michael Thatcher, President and CEO of Charity Navigator. "Only 10% of the charities we evaluate have received at least 5 consecutive 4-star evaluations, indicating that Animal Welfare Association outperforms most other charities in America. This exceptional designation from Charity Navigator sets Animal Welfare Association apart from its peers and demonstrates to the public its trustworthiness."

"It's important our donors trust that we're using our funding wisely to accomplish AWA's mission," said Maya Richmond, Executive Director of AWA. "Our 4-star Charity Navigator rating demonstrates to our supporters that we take our fiduciary and governance responsibilities very seriously." AWA's rating and other information about charitable giving are available free of charge on www.charitynavigator.org.
